

Public Notice

It has been brought to our attention that certain unauthorized agencies/individuals are sending out false job offers via emails, web portals, communications ("Offers") and are purporting to be from American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. These agencies/individuals send fraudulent checks to the recipient to deposit into their personal accounts and then request a portion of the money be sent back to them. The Offers are falsely stated to be from American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc.

American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. has not sent out any such Offers. Please note that American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc., as a policy, does not collect any money as a pre-employment requirement. American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. and its affiliate companies bear no responsibility for amounts being deposited / withdrawn therefrom in response to such Offers.

These Offers may carry the ID or domain name or of American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. (or a deceptively similar name) to make it look authentic. All communications should originate from a verifiable American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. e-mail address and not from an Internet e-mail address e.g.: hotmail, yahoo etc.

As a vigilant jobseeker, please look out for the following pointers (illustrative only not exhaustive) to identify the fraudulent Offers:

- American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. does not ask for any money from the candidate at any stage of the recruitment process.
- A fraudulent Offer may mention the bank account number of an individual or payment in cash.
- The bank account details would be given upon calling up on the number mentioned in the fraudulent Offer.
- In any case the bank account would not be in the name of American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc.
- American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. letters will address job applicants with proper salutations including the last name (not with generic greetings).
- Please check if you receive calls from the American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. registered numbers or from a private number.

We advise candidates not to respond to any fraudulent Offers and not to make any payments. In case of any doubt please contact American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. at 800-967-3633

American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc's name and identity is being used fraudulently in the aforementioned instances. In as much as we sympathize with anyone who has lost money in this way, American Financial & Automotive Services, Inc. cannot accept any responsibility.
